

Parish Council Meeting - 23/April/2023

Present at meeting - Father Bob, Christopher Wautlet, Tom Klinkhammer, Mary Koslowski, Jessica Anderson, Julie Klein

Excused – Mark & Lisa Blenker

~ Open with prayer.

~ Introduce any guests.

~ Pick up on our review of Entrust. Review section titled Ignite the Power of the Holy Spirit. Next meeting continues with Advancing the Kingdom: The Charismatic Gifts of the Holy Spirit, page 29

~ Update on our One By One Campaign - Father remarked committee is still meeting and on track. The current focus is for symmetry on the alter. The committee has agreed upon a design for the two curved walls at the front of the church. The next step is to get pricing on the material. Bishop Ricken saw the recent changes and loved the sanctuary.

~ Adult Lounge - Could one of the Angle rooms be transformed into a room for adult gatherings? Small Groups for example. Christopher will make a scale drawing of the area. Council members should send him ideas of possible uses for the room. Christopher will pass them along to Father and he will present them at a staff meeting.

~ When will the Blood of Christ be offered at Mass again? Bishop Ricken has made a decision and sent a letter to the priests in the Green Bay diocese. Father will read the letter either during mass or present via video on our Facebook page.

~ Vocation Committee update - Father has 2 possible people interested in helping. Jessica had another possible candidate and will ask if they are interested in becoming a member of this committee.

~ Recap of Holy Week. It was amazing, everything went very well.

~ Committee Reports. Childrens Liturgy will continue during the summer months. Mary K

School Board is still vetting candidates Jessica A

Neenah Menasha Trustees did not meet this month.

~ Next Month's meeting is currently scheduled for the Tuesday after Memorial Day. Would we like to change the date to allow for extended vacations that may be taking place?

Christopher will look into changing the meeting to May 21st

~ Open discussion.

~ Close with prayer.
